

Delaware County Genealogist

V. 1., #3 Sept 1992

P. 54

"1886 Enrollment of Persons Who Served in the Late Service of the United States" by Juanita Weaver Lewis

John Washington Dales, of Union Township, was a private in the 34th Indiana Regiment, Volunteers, in the Civil War. He died 25 February 1879 caused from overheat at Nashville while in the service. There was one child under sixteen. His widow, Lutisha, remarried to Jacob Brock. She was in indigent circumstances."